

International Institute of Social History (IISH)
Amsterdam

Twentieth-Century Iran: History From Below
25-26 May 2001

Workshop Programme

Friday 25th May

Morning Session, 10.00-13.30

Ratna Saptari: Opening

Marcel van den Linden: The Labour History's Global Growth

Shahid Amin: Writing Alternative Histories

11.30-12.00 Coffee Break

Valentine Mogadam: The Subaltern Women's Perception of Modernity

Dawud Gholamasad: The Civilising and Democratising Processes in Twentieth Century Iran

13.30-14.30 Lunch

Afternoon Session 14.30-17.00

Ervand Abrahamian: Memoirs from the Left in Iran

Azam Khatam: The Left and City Migration and Marginalisation in Iran

Farhad Nomani: The Nature of the Marginalisation of Women's Workforce in Iran: 1976-96

17.00 –18.00: Visiting IISH Collections

18.00: Back to the Hotel

19.30: Dinner at the Indonesian Restaurant

Twentieth-Century Iran: History From Below
25-26 May 2001

Workshop Programme

Saturday 26th

Morning Session, 09.30-13.00

Sohrab Behdad: Involution and De-involution, Changes in the Iranian Labour Force, 1976-1996

Eric Hoogland: Rural Labour in Contemporary Iran

11.30-12.00 Coffee Break

Willem Floor: The Workers of Khatunabad: Working and Living Conditions (1950-1980)

Kaveh Ehsani: Labour and Petty Functionaries in the Making the City of Abadan

13.00-14.30 Lunch at the Dutch Trade Union Museum

Afternoon Session 14.30-18.00

Asef Bayat: Dislocating Poor People's Histories: Urban Subaltern, the Iranian Revolution and Egypt's Islamism

Farhad Khosrokhavar: The Subaltern Youth and Basij in the Islamic Revolution

Touraj Atabaki: Disgruntled Guests, Iranian Subaltern on the Margin of Tsarist Empire

17.00 –18.00: Coffee, Summing up, Publication, Future Network and Workshops

18.00: Back to the Hotel

19.30: Dinner at the Levant Restaurant