Dear Jack Horner,

Arrived here today.
Since you left things have happened which prohibited my going "home". We are forced to look for a new "home". The present one is broken up. I will be staying here a few days to find our new possibilities.
When I will know definitely about my future movement I will let you know.

The Labour Bureau question has been settled. Paris may be the best place. But I will not decide before seeing you. I may come to your place soon.

Meanwhile write me to -

B. Dulla
